Surrounding Area

Port Bannatyne lies in North Bute about 3 miles north of the ferry port at Rothesay. Boats sail over from Wemyss Bay on the mainland in half an hour. Northern Bute is a true highland wilderness, with amazing walks, abundance of wildlife, seals, deer, hares etc. and umpteen birds. The bay has its own yacht marina and boatyard, and a wonderful golf course.

Our menus are shown in full on www.russiantavern.co.uk The cuisine is Imperial Russian carefully researched in the Tsar'sarchives in St Petersburg. All meals are cooked freshly from fresh local ingredients. Our garden provides vegetables, salads and herbs, and we have our own fisherman. Fabulous langoustines from the bay. Count Nikiolai Tolstoy unprompted said, "This is the best
